Emerging Talents: Student Spotlight Exhibition

February 21 - March 17, 2020

All students who have taken a class or workshop at Naples Art during the 2019-20 class sessions (October 2019 to the present) are invited to submit one artwork completed during the class session time period for the Emerging Talents: Student Spotlight Exhibition awards judging and jury process. Membership in Naples Art is not required for participation. The non-refundable entry fee is $5.

Awards: Best of Show $100, First Place $75, Second Place $50 and two Honorable Mentions of $25 each

About the Juror: Morgan T. Paine

Morgan T. Paine is an Associate Professor of Art at Florida Gulf Coast University in Fort Myers, Florida having been the founding Art Program faculty member and Gallery Director when the university opened in 1997. He taught at Alverno College in Milwaukee for thirteen years participating in the development of their pioneering ability-based educational curriculum as it related to undergraduate artists' education and served as director of their Fine Arts gallery for more than ten years. He holds a Master of Fine Arts Degree from Massachusetts College of Art and a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Studio Art from Reed College in Portland, Oregon. He is a painter with a 39-year long daily painting practice, focused on what it means to make a painting.

Certain restrictions apply for participation. For example, two-dimensional artwork cannot be larger than 38 inches (thirty-eight inches) in any direction including frame, if a frame is used. Please see reverse side for complete details. The Emerging Talents: Student Spotlight Exhibition will be installed in Gallery 104 from February 21 through March 17, 2020. The exhibition is generously sponsored by Jean Devine.

Instructions for Naples Art Students

1. Artists must have taken at least one class or workshop during the 2019-2020 class sessions (October 2019 to the present).
2. Enter one artwork in any media.
3. Participating artists will receive an email message informing them of the jury process/awards results.
4. Two-dimensional artwork is not to exceed 38 inches in any direction (including frame, if a frame is used).
5. Gallery 104 is equipped with a slat-wall system for artwork installation. All two-dimensional artwork must be equipped with a secure hanging wire (no saw-tooth hangers or hanging brackets). To avoid injury, raw wire ends must be taped. There should be at least 3 inches between the wire and the top of the frame when hung on a single hook.
6. Three-dimensional art is not to exceed 35 lbs. and must fit on a 14" x 14" pedestal, and cannot exceed a width or depth of 18".
7. Artwork must be in good condition, professionally presented and ready for gallery installation.
8. Artwork must be received at Naples Art on the receiving date and during the times specified.
9. Storage space is very limited. Artwork not picked-up by April 16, 2020 will be considered abandoned and may not be kept by Naples Art.

Waiver

Due care will be taken with all artwork. However, Naples Art will not be held responsible for loss and/or damage to registered and exhibited artwork. Participants may wish to acquire insurance to cover loss and/or damage.

Sales of Artwork

Naples Art will process sales of artwork during the exhibition. Buyers may take art from Gallery 104 immediately after purchasing it. Naples Art retains a 30% commission on all works sold during the exhibition. After a buyer purchases a work, the artist will be notified by telephone or e-mail. After buyers take possession of their artwork a check for the sale proceeds will be mailed to the artist's address listed on the Emerging Talents entry form. Artists' sale proceed checks will be mailed within three weeks of the close of exhibition. Artwork in the exhibition does not need to be available for purchase. If your artwork will be nfs (not for sale) during the exhibition, leave the price field blank on the entry form and enter a dollar value on the right side of the form.
