

Go Bigger & Bolder in Cold Wax

Lisa Boardwine

A $25 supply fee is due to the instructor on the first day for specialty materials.

Wax will be provided to students as part of the tuition.

Oil paints-assortment of oil paint colors, (some of my favorite colors- Warm White, Indian Yellow & Asphaltum in Gamblin, Chinese Orange in Sennelier)

Several Artists pre-gessoed panels (I recommend the Ampersand gessoboard or cheap joes pre-gessoed panels- in various sizes for this workshop- they can be cradled or flat-your preference)

*Depending on how fast or slow you work determines the number of panels you should bring.

Suggested panel sizes for this workshop-sizes from 20x20 up to 40x40 pre-gessoed panels

Arches Oil Paper pads in either 12x16 or 9x12

A trowel or offset style knife 4-inch, (I will have these for sale).

Scrapers with silicone blades--the dough scrapers you find in kitchen shops (I will have these for sale), squeegees/scrapers, Princeton Creative Catalyst scrapers-# 1 or #6 are also good!

Gamsol- and a container/spray bottle for gamsol

4 inch soft brayer

Oil sticks --just a few in your favorite colors (I prefer R&F brand)

Rags/paper towels & wet wipes (my favorite are Wet Ones brand)

Anything interesting to make texture in paint (stencils, stamps, string, grid, mesh etc), and your favorite Collage Paper, if you would like to add collage to your pieces.

Mark making tools- Caran d'Ache crayons, graphite pencils, charcoal pencils, Art Graf, Stabilo crayons (Woodys), anything you enjoy making marks with.

Artist apron/shirt, gloves- this is very messy painting!

1 inch & 2 inch Blue painter's tape or the white painters tape

Freezer paper- for palette

Wax paper- for transporting wet paintings

Additional information

Participants will have a one hour lunch break.

I will have the suggested scrapers, brayers and trowel knives for sale at the workshop.

I will also bring other fun materials for you to sample and try.

Please contact me with any questions about the workshop and/or supplies:
lisaboardwinefineart@gmail.com